

BECON

March 14, 2025

Today was a business meeting. There was a small crowd this morning. We were able to march through the meeting agenda pretty quickly. Tim Crowley won the pot again but I doubt there was much in it.

Announcements

Shawnee brought up the MSUB Foundation Wine Fest's need for volunteers. If you are interested, please let her know. Maybe we can earn a little bit of money. The dates are 4/17 and 4/18, Easter weekend.

Bill Kennedy had a few upcoming event announcements.

Wednesday, March 26th, Vietnam Veterans Ceremony at the Yellowstone Veterans Cemetery in Laurel, starts at noon

Wednesday, April 3rd, Unattended Veterans Ceremony at the Yellowstone Veteran's Cemetery in Laurel. This at noon.

Monday, April 28th, All Exchange club event and silent auction/fundraiser at Hooligan's for the Family Tree Nurturing Center. I think this starts around 5pm.

Saturday, June 28th, Family Tree Nurturing Center Golf Tourney at Pryor Creek, starts at 9am. See their website for more information and application.

Tanya represented the BEC Foundation and accepted a $1500 donation from the Club to the Foundation.

Officer Reports

Shannon told us we are 118 members. And that is it.

Ed said our member accounts are in good shape. If you owe for past dues please get them in forthwith. We made a little bit of money in February.

Mike said we made $8800 at the MATE show. Those AG folks like to drink. We made $4700 at the recent Monster Truck show. Lots of kids there. And about $1000 at MSUB basketball games.

We have a few events coming up. Here is a list that I got off the METRA website.

April 5th, Big Air Bash

April 11th and 12th, Pro Bull Riders

April 20th – Outlaws game

April 25th – Outlaws game

April 27th – Tom Segura concert

May 10th – Outlaws game

May 17th – Outlaws game

June 1st – Outlaws game

June 9th – Outlaws game

June 14th – Monster Trucks

July 2nd – Hozier

Night Shows at the Fair (8/8-8/10) – Russell Dickerson, Flo Rida, Fluffy
